Processed data categories

Apart from the data we visibly collect during the registration process, we take photos during the event.

Purpose of data processing and possible consequences of failure to provide personal data

Personal data are processed in order to carry out and confirm your registration for the event and to organize and conduct the event, including any directly related follow-up work.

Data marked as mandatory are required in order to conclude a contract. The registration for and participation in the event are not possible without the mandatory data.

Photos of the event are used for information about the event on the website of the university, on the website of the HPSL, and in press releases.

In accordance with relevant legal regulations, we can take the following photos without your consent and use them for public relations work:

Photos

- portraying an aspect of contemporary history
- where people only appear as accessories next to landscapes or other sites,
- showing assemblies, parades or similar events and the nature of the respective event which the persons depicted took part in.

For all other photos, you will be asked for consent individually if you have not given general consent. Refusing to give consent does not have any negative consequences.

Legal basis

- For carrying out and confirming the registration and for organizing and conducting the event, including directly related follow-up work:
Art. 6 paragraph 1(e) in conjunction with Art. 6 paragraph 3 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in conjunction with section 4 of the Data Protection Act of the Land of Baden-Württemberg (LDSG BW). Voluntary information: Art. 6 paragraph 1(a) GDPR.
- For photos depicting the nature of the event (overview photos): Art. 6 paragraph 1(e) in conjunction with Art. 6 paragraph 3 GDPR in conjunction with section 4 LDSG BW
- In case of other photos, the photographer will ask for your consent in accordance with Art. 6 paragraph 1(a) GDPR.

Recipients

- All data provided during the registration will only be handled by the organizing committee and the coordinators of the HPSL school of linguistics
- Of photos: worldwide users of online and print media.

- Furthermore, legal regulations regarding archiving must be observed and documents must be offered to the university archive before erasure. The university archive decides whether documents are transferred to the archive or not.

Duration of storage

- As a rule, data are deleted when the event is concluded and any directly related follow-up work has been completed (approximately one to two months after the last day of the event).
- Photos are deleted ten years after the event at the latest. In case a photo was subject to your consent, the photo will be deleted immediately in case you withdraw your given consent.
- Documents may be transferred to the respective university archive and are usually stored indefinitely.

Your rights

- You have the right to obtain information about personal data stored by the university of Freiburg and the right to have false data rectified.
- Furthermore, you have the right to erasure, the right to restriction of processing and the right to object to the processing.
- In case you gave consent during the registration to individual photos being taken of you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. The withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on your consent before its withdrawal.

In order to withdraw your consent, please contact:

Dr. Cynthia Dermarkar, contact@hpsl.uni-freiburg.de .

- You have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority responsible if you are of the opinion that the processing of your personal data is not in compliance with data protection regulations.

The supervisory authority in Baden-Württemberg is the commissioner for data protection and freedom of information of Baden-Württemberg (Landesbeauftragter für den Datenschutz und die Informationsfreiheit Baden-Württemberg).

Additional information

- Cookies
As a rule, only session cookies are used. These will automatically be deleted after the end of your session.

II. Information on your right to object according to Art. 21 paragraph 1 GDPR

On grounds relating to your particular situation, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data according to Art. 6 paragraph 1(e) GDPR (data processing in the public interest) at any time.
